Pension Commissioner Raum Reports.

Strong Ground Taken in Favor of the Disability Act.

The Harrison and Cleveland Administrations Contrasted.

An Important Cabinet Meeting—The President's Message to Go to Congress the Day After It Assembles.

By Telegraph to The Times.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The annual report of the Commissioner of Pensions, Green B. Raum, shows that there were on the pension rolls 30 last 876,068 pensioners, an increase during the year of 199,908. There were added to the rolls during the year 222,937 new pensioners, and 2477 pensioners previously dropped were restored to the pension lists. During the year 25,300 persons were dropped from the rolls. The total amount expended for pensions during the year was $139,035,612. For the present fiscal year $144,956,000 is appropriated, and, taking the cost of pension allowances during the first four months of this fiscal year as a basis of calculation, the Commissioner estimates that a deficiency appropriation of $10,538,621 will be necessary to supply the needed funds. An estimate of $165,000,000 is submitted for the next fiscal year. The Commissioner says, however, that since as many pension allowances were made this year as last, this will not be enough. Under the dependent and disability acts 920,957 claims were filed, of which 403,859 have been allowed. Pension payments under the law to 433,300 amounted to $76,494,443. The Commission heartily commends the disability act.

The Commissioner admits that since the passage of the law there has been a great deal of unfavorable comment upon the pension system in general, and that it has been said that the country is in danger of being bankrupted by extravagant and undeserving pension legislation. "But," he comments, "a casual consideration of the great change in most of the lives of these men and the conditions to which military life in time of war subjected them, must suggest that the strain upon the life power of the soldier was so great as to make permanent inroads upon his vital forces, which would necessarily result in the development of a number of ailments and disabilities beyond the reach of medicine. It is this class of citizens who now constitute the pension body, those who are in the pension roles. Good health and ability to perform labor were their capital. When these were gone they were in a great measure deprived of means of support. A large proportion of the men who carried muskets have been unable to keep up with their neighbors who remained at home, in the great struggle of life, and the claims of these persons for assistance from the Government rest upon the broadest foundation of justice."

The Commissioner says that the policy of the office for three years has been to use the largest part of the force on original claims, because it just and proper that those who never received a pension should have their claim considered in advance of those persons seeking increase of pension. During the past fiscal year 224,027 certificates were issued in original cases, and 79,781 in increase claims. The commissioner is of the opinion that if this policy were followed until the close of the fiscal year 1894, the adjudication of original claims will be substantially completed, and at the close of 1894 the highest number of pensioners ever to be on the rolls will have been placed there. There are 419,876 original claims pending—the revolutionary and 1812 war rolls are rapidly dwindling. Only twenty widows and two daughters of revolutionary veterans are on the former roll. Survivors of the war of 1812 on the rolls now number only 185, against 284 a year before.

Raum closes with a comparative statement of the work done under the Cleveland and Harrison administrations. He says that the total number of original certificates issued from March 4, 1889, to October 31, 1892, was 520,565 and the total number of pension certificates of all classes issued during the period from March 4, 1885, to October 31, 1888, was 518,769, and the total number of certificate issued during that period was 402,385. The amount granted to the Government at each certificate granted during Cleveland's administration was $21,155, and during the present administration $10,411.

Important Cabinet Meeting.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—President Harrison, in view of the exigency of the near approach of the session of Congress, called a special meeting of his Cabinet today to consider the recommendations in his message. It is now his intention to merely touch on one or two points which he has in mind to elaborate, and he expects to have the document ready for presentation to Congress Tuesday. The Bering Sea case and the financial outlook were also considered at the Cabinet meeting today.

Blaire Rapidly Convalescing.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Ex-Secretary Blaine is gradually convalescing from his recent attack of illness. He is up and about the house every day, and is rapidly regaining strength.

PRICES OF COAL.

The Methods of the Reading Combine Further Investigated.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The investigation into the coal combine was resumed this morning. Thomas Thadford, a coal dealer, testified that prices this season were unusually uniform. He attributed this fact to the coal combine.

Foxhall Keene to Marry.

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Foxhall Keene announced today to a few favored friends his engagement to Miss Frank Worth White. He also said he would be married on the 14th of December and sail the same day for England, where he has taken a house at Melton for the winter.

The Nicaragua Canal Convention Opens.

Great Gathering of Representative Men at New Orleans.

Hon. M. M. Estes Appears as a Champion of the Project.

The Convention Will Probably Urge that the Federal Government Guarantee the Bonds for Completing the Great Work.

Telegraph to The Times.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 30.—[By the Associated Press.] The National Convention in the interest of the Nicaragua Canal opened here today. The convention is the outgrowth of the movement inaugurated on the Pacific Coast. In response to the desires of the commercial bodies of San Francisco, Gov. Markham last March called on the Governors of various States to appoint delegates to a convention to be held in St. Louis to consider means of forwarding the work under national auspices. That convention met last June, and before closing, arranged for the present convention. The general idea is to induce Congress to recognize the canal company by guaranteeing its paper, and to extend Government protection over it to prevent any foreign interference in its management detrimental to American interests. This course is urged, not at the instance of the canal company, which thinks it can raise the necessary amount for construction—$100,000,000 but on the general grounds that this country should control its management. A bill to that effect is pending in Congress.

TERMS: By Mail, $2 a year; by carrier, 20 cents a month, or 20 cents a week. Sunday Times, $2 a year. Weekly, $1.30; 6 months, 75 cents.

Guaranteed Daily Circulation in October, 11,606 Copies.

Exceeding the combined circulation of all other Los Angeles daily papers.

Entered at the Los Angeles Postoffice for transmission as second-class mail matter.

The Times is for sale at the Occidental Hotel.
We stand, San Francisco, price 5 cents per copy.

Female football is on the way. Will somebody please spare our blushes?

Some people are waiting to see whether it is the prophet or the tiger.

We can scarcely curb our impatience to see the Democracy belt — out of the tarts.

If we are all mixed up in the comet's tail that way, why doesn't somebody put salt on it?

MARY ANDERSON is said to be an enthusiastic fisherwoman. There is Grover's chance to pair.

WHAT more appropriate than that "Bloody Mary" should go to the Senate from "Bleeding Kansas."

Nonoy knows how it found out, but the San José Mercury says: "These are push times in holiday goods."

Ir you are not going to do up protection, how about civil service reform? Don't keep so still about everything.

The San José Phoenix has once more died off, but you can't keep a thing like that covered up in the ashes very long.

They have a "League of Peace" in Europe, but over here piece clubs are as common to every ward as warts on horses.

The November exhibit, published on another page, shows a daily average circulation for The Times of 11,951 copies, net.

We read that there is such a thing as hypnotic power in animals. Who knows but that is what ails the after feet of a mule?

The Democratic country press of California is apparently solid for "Our Steve" for United States Senator. The country press "heaps sable."

We venture to say that the Denver girl who was forced to swallow six dynamite capsules, a few days since, is not riding the bicycle much these times.

Some of the papers are trying to make out that Mrs. Lease wears suspenders. Now we submit that this is carrying the fight a little too far. "She never, neither."

THE TIMES, with a swinging step, has steadily marched along the main-traveled road of popular favor until it is today hard on to the 12,000 circulation post.

Ir Grover has found a vast wilderness where there is good shooting he would find it conducive to happiness to build a lodge in it and keep his head out of sight for about four years or so.

THE New York World says: "The Cheyennes and Arapahoes are still uneasy. They want something to eat." Well, most anybody would squirm around more or less if he had an empty stomach onto him.

THE San José Mercury has the audacity to call itself the best family-journal on the Pacific Coast. If the people of Los Angeles tamely submit to this high-handed outrage, we are entitled to our opinion of them.

A PAPER that goes its pile on statistics says: "It would take a man 3000 years to read all the standard works." This, of course, does not include the Chicago Sunday papers—add 33% per cent. for those organs, and then the man would be dreadfully overworked.

THE Chicago Tribune and Inter Ocean have each put up $20,000 as proof that the other fellow is a liar, and we guess he is. But they missed a golden opportunity when they failed to pick us out to hold the stakes—few people can do that with more aplomb and stuff than "we uns."

If you want to know how distance can lend enchantment, just read the following paragraph from the Blade, published away back at Toledo. O. It will no doubt make people up at the capital titter right out: "Sacramento, Cal., is governed by a board of commissioners consisting of three persons, elected by the people, and the government is very satisfactory."

Close at Hand.

The city election will take place next Monday, and thus far everything seems to be serene. We hope, however, that the contest will not be so devoid of excitement that Republicans will fail to turn out and score a full vote. Los Angeles is still strongly Republican, as shown by the vote in the Presidential election. Members of the party should see that it continues so. The Republican ticket stands for a progressive, honest and efficient city government, and for the proper regulation of the liquor traffic as we now have it.

If this ticket is not elected we will take a step backward—a step toward old-fogeyism and lax regulations in several important departments. We would regret to see such a blow struck at the material prosperity of Los Angeles at this time. Therefore, we urge Republicans to turn out and vote to a man, and vote for their party ticket.

have to work as hard for a livelihood as anybody, are placed between the upper and the nether millstones, and if they do not have a care, they are going to be ground very fine.

The telegraph brought us the other day the account of a struggle between the Standard Oil Company, one of the worst monopolies in the country, and the United States Pipe Line Company, which is endeavoring to build a competing line in the States of New York and Pennsylvania. Ever since the competing corporation began operations, about a year ago, the Standard monopoly has done all in its power to defeat its efforts to lay another line. A favorite method of the monopoly was to buy up strips of land lying across the surveyed route and then fight the new company with injunction suits. Twenty-nine times this humbug was carried through, but the courts of Pennsylvania, in which the contests were mostly made, ruled uniformly in favor of the new company.

But the overt act came last Sunday, when the Standard company sent a force of over 100 men to Hancock, N. Y., armed with grappling hooks, ropes, bars, powder and dynamite with which to resist the building of the new pipe line under the Erie Railway Company's bridge across the Delaware River. A cannon was also taken along and trained upon the scene of expected operations. No contest ensued, because the new company did not attempt to lay its pipe.

But, if a contest had ensued (and the intent was certainly there so far as the Standard Company was concerned), what would have been the result? Probably a number of people would have been killed or maimed. In that event, we say that not only the people engaged in the attack should have been tried for insurrection and murder, but the officers and directors of the Standard Oil Company should have been promptly popped into prison and denied bail, pending trial. If it were possible to confiscate the property of the Standard Oil Company, that ought to be done also. This sort of outlawry, we say, must be stopped promptly and summarily, or the whole country will drift into a condition of semi-anarchy. Men with large, vested interests ought to be the last to resort to it, for they are the ones who will suffer worst if the deluge which they are helping along should come in good earnest. We would make examples of these capitalistic anarchists, so that he who runs may read. This is a country of law and order, and woe be to any overgrown corporation which resorts to violence to further its monopolistic schemes.

Rev. Mr. Corbett wants to show just the stuff he is made of, let him get into one of those football games. If he comes out of it without an ear kicked off, a lung ruptured and a shattered collarbone, then he is the champion.

AMUSEMENTS.

AT THE PLAYHOUSES.

GRAND OPERAHOUSE.—Milton Nobles erred greatly in not beginning his engagement here with his new play, For Revenue Only, which he presented last night to a rather small house, but to one that shrieked and roared with laughter from the moment the curtain went up on the first act. For Revenue Only is a broad burlesque on third-party politics, but incidentally contains much sly satire on the old political system which dominated this country for several decades. It is not entirely free from old jokes, but what few it contains are so pat that they are excusable. For instance, the one where a character says "Know your editor, if he believes in heaven or hell, and believe it." That he does not care to take sides, as he has friends in both places—although it has been heard long ago by perhaps every one in the audience, is it so apropos that the dress is that it was not corset under it. The woman was so thin and willowy that she could discard stays with dis-

Miss Jeannette McCook, as maid of honor, came next, alone in the center, immediately preceding the bride, who leaned upon the arm of her father, dressed in a soft rupp silk, with veil.

Rev. Burt Estes Howard took his place at the fore and remained standing as the party approached, and through the side door at the right the groom entered with Mr. Henry Stoddard, his best man, and joined the bride before the minister.

The ceremony, in keeping with the simplicity of the whole affair, was brief, and the happy couple, soon man and wife, turned to receive the warm congratulations of the friends who crowded about them and paid triumphant strains of the Martha overture.

An elaborate collation was served in the handsomely-decorated dining-room, directly afterward, and at 9:15, amid showers of rice and happy wishes, the bridal party took the special train for this city and left immediately for the North, en route for their Eastern home.

The presents, too numerous to mention, were both costly and beautiful.

The following were present: Gen. and Mrs. McCook, Miss Jeannette McCook, Lieut. and Mrs. C. B. Baker, Maj. and Mrs. Canby, Messrs. Canby, Dr. and Mrs. Huntington, Col. H. C. Corbin, Miss Phillips, Miss Mary Sebenek, Dayton, O., and Mrs. C. L. Corbin, Lieut. and Mrs. J. E. IN SPITE OF THE STORM.

Mrs. C. P. Dorland entertained the fifteen members of Mrs. Averill's class in English history, at an elegant luncheon last Tuesday. Literary games and an animated discussion on women's suffrage instructed and entertained the guests.

A large coterie of friends extended their congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Miller in front of Rulo's house, on Boyle Heights, a week ago, and evening, notwithstanding the cloudy weather.

IN THE CARD BASKET.

Special Officer L. L. Rulo, who pleaded guilty to battery on a man named Miller in front of Rulo's house, on Boyle Heights, a week ago, was examined in Justice Owen's court yesterday. Several witnesses testified that they saw Rulo knock Miller down and kick him several times. Rulo explained that Miller was hanging around his house, and attempted to force an entrance, and when he returned home he fired him and pushed him from the sidewalk, when he fell down and cut his head. The Court will sentence Rulo to day.

MEETINGS TONIGHT.

Mrs. Nathan Stowell has issued at home cards for next Friday, from 2 to 6 p.m., to meet Miss Crandall.

This is the season of art receptions and card galore are coming in. Today and tomorrow Mrs. L. M. Patterson will

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

CRAIGHEAD-M'COOK.

Last evening at 6 o'clock there was witnessed at the Hotel Redondo in the marriage of Miss Kathleen McCook, daughter of Gen. A. McD. McCook, and Mr. Charles Craighead, the most notable social event of the season, and one which has been long looked forward to as an occasion of the most brilliant gathering that has taken place for many months, as, indeed, it was.

Numerous among the throng of guests were many from all parts of the State, and from Eastern cities, embarking in their large acquaintanceship of bride and groom.

A special train on the Santa Fe road left this city at 9:30 in the afternoon, carrying down to the beach a large delegation of army officers with their families and friends, to augment the gathering at the hotel, which had been constantly upon the increase for several days.

It was a happy company, and they were most heartily greeted by the girls. Minnie Hance-Owens, Miss Bertha Penning and other well-known musics mentioned in Sunday's Times.

BREVITIES.

A Man Injured and Two Reckless Drivers Arrested.

New Local Inventors Becoming Prominent—Various Items of Local Interest—The News in Brief.

Through reckless driving on South Fair Oaks avenue, yesterday morning, a citizen of town was thrown from his car and painfully injured. A C. Hess had his rig standing a short distance south of Colorado street, and was talking to a friend on the sidewalk, when two men seated in a light open sewing-machine wagon drove rapidly down the street and crashed into the cart, throwing Mr. Hess out so as to break his collar bone and badly bruise him.

Constable Slater happened near by, and he soon had the offenders under arrest on a charge of fast driving. They promptly escaped to the City Hall and their names were not known to the officers. They gave their names as Andrew Kelly and John Lee. Kelly was driving at the time of the collision. Both men had been drinking, and both were allowed to go after having deposited $10 each to appear for trial. During the proceedings a man attempted to jump from the court, but was promptly called back by the Marshal, and later, when he became obstinate, he was held to answer a second charge of disturbing the peace.

WILL REVOLUTONIZE FRUIT CLEANING.

The TIMES reporter was shown a day or so ago a fruit cleaning machine, which was invented by a well-known, well-known and with modest young man of town who has associated himself in the matter of bringing his invention before the public with David Coyle and Clyde Barnhart.

The machine is designed primarily to clean oranges, but it can be used to good purpose on almost any kind of fruit. It is simple in construction and will stand a great deal of hard work. A single machine consists of two hollow half globes into which are fitted cones, around which are wound the wires of the rapid revolving brushes, and occupies but a moment. The fruit is deposited in another receptacle beneath the brushes, and after being cleaned is transferred to boxes by means of shoots of compressed air. The capacity of the machine can be doubled, and a second operator can operate at the same pace. The invention, for which a patent has already been applied for, promises to revolutionize methods in the fruit trade, and deserves great credit upon those who have interested themselves in bringing it before the public.

WILL BE REPRESENTED AT THE FAIR.

Formal notice was received yesterday by Miss Pichler, director of the Pasadena Loan Association, that the World's Fair Commission had accepted the application of that organization or space in the California Building at Chicago. In all probability the association will be granted ninety square feet of space. The communication bears the signature of Thomas H. Thompson, secretary of the fair commission.

The loan association will be formally organized for the season's work next month, with a membership limited to 100. The meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. William Stanton. The personnel of the association will be announced soon.

A GROSSESSE INSTITUTION.

The directors of the Orange Grove Valley Bank held a meeting yesterday. Ackley Hubbard and Webster Wotkins were elected members of the board to fill vacancies. The newly-organized board later elected Mr. Hubbard to the chairmanship. F. C. Holt will retain his position as president and manager of the institution, which capacity he has proved entirely successful. There will be no change made in the policy of the institution. A report submitted by Mr. Holt, showing the operations of the past ten months, was highly satisfactory to all interested, and was altogether encouraging.

QUELLY WEDDED.

Dr. Arthur H. Palmer, our well-known townswoman, was married Tuesday evening to Miss M. Lizzie Bacon, one of Pasadena's most accomplished ladies. Rev. Dr. Conroy officiated. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bridegroom, on South Madison avenue. The wedding was private, and the bride and groom, after the sensible fashion, began at once their home life, where they will be glad to receive their friends. No card was sent. Mr. Palmer will be the recipient of numerous congratulations in a community where both are universally popular.

TODAY'S BAZAR.

This afternoon and evening the members of the Woman's Guild of All Saints' Church will hold a bazaar at the Carlton parlor. A large variety of fancy articles will be exhibited for sale, and the evening a unique and interesting musical entertainment will be given. This will include the world-famous, but seldom-heard, "human phone," which itself is worth double the admission price. Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong will contribute a male quartette and Mrs. Nellie Stoutsong. Mr. Armstrong will contribute to the evening's pleasure by playing several selections on the mandolin.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

At a business meeting of the Pasadena band, held Tuesday evening, permanent organization was effected by the election of the following officers: H. C. Staats, manager; H. P. Brockway, treasurer; W. H. Bagley, secretary; Frank Hall, leader; W. T. Harrington, assistant leader, and H. M. Gabriel, director. An Executive Committee, composed of B. P. Brockway, H. M. Staats and W. H. Bagley, was elected. A committee was also appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws, which will be submitted at the next meeting.

PASADENA BREVIETIES.

Pete Stell moved into his new quarters yesterday.

Col. H. C. Corbin leaves tomorrow for Washington D. C.

The collectors will be out in full force today. Have your cash ready.

Co. B will hold a special drill and business meeting at the Armory this evening.

The interior of the Bon Accord has received some noticeable improvements recently.

Some members of the Athletic Club engaged in a tennis tournament at the club yesterday.

Some new typewriters and stands have been added to the stenographic department of Throop University.

Andrew McNally and family are expected soon from Chicago. They will spend the winter at their Altadena home.

The Scoop's musicale next Saturday afternoon will be a charming arrangement of "Antique Laurie."

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin, parents of F. Martin Summers, have arrived in Pasadena from New York to remain during the winter.

Several aspirants for the Pasadena post-office place are circulating petitions for signatures of people who advocate their candidacies.

At a meeting of Pasadena Lodge, K. of P., held Tuesday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

The Weather.
U. S. WEATHER OFFICE, LOS ANGELES,
Nov. 30, 1892.—At 5 a.m. the barometer registered 30.05; at 5 p.m. 30.02. Thermometer for corresponding hours showed 57° and 60°. Maximum temperature 64°; minimum temperature 56°. Variations of other cities. Rainfall for the past twenty-four hours, .02; rainfall for the season, 4.74.

A novel invention whereby the celebrated Rochester lamp is being used as an oil-heating device; over 300 have been sold since October 26, 1892. They are made in three sizes, viz.: No. 1, No. 2, and No. 3, being one, two, and forty-eight inches high. They are gotten up in the most attractive manner, being elaborately nickelled and concealed by all who have seen them to be not only the handsomest, but the best oil-heating stove ever made. The man who invented it says it will warm an ordinary room in a few minutes, and is capable of heating two or more rooms, and is the most economical way of doing it. Being a lamp, the combustion is perfect, consequently no odor, and every part is guaranteed for five years. The inventor is F. E. Browne, Nos. 314 and 316 South Spring street, where they can be seen in operation or sent for circular.

One of the latest novelties out are those painted porcelain plaques with silver frames. Also decorated picture glass photo frames with silver mountings. These make an elegant Christmas present for a small amount of money. Call and see them at Sanborn, Vail Company, No. 133 South Spring street.

The weather yesterday was cloudy, and during the day there were frequent light showers. After dark, however, it cleared up and remained so for some hours.

The authority for the Santa Paula accident, reported in the TIMES several days ago, and afterward denied by a citizen of Ventura county, was Mr. Hardison of Santa Paula.

At the Union Thanksgiving service held in the First Presbyterian Church, a thank offering of $44 was received and divided equally between the Orphans' Home and the Benevolent Society.

The Times, the smallest paper ever sent through the mails, has been received at the TIMES office. It is about 2½x3 inches, issued weekly, regularly entered at the postoffice as second-class mail matter, and is published at Decato, Alameda, Calif.

Capt. Wesley Roberts, an old resident of this city, died at his home, No. 531 Banning street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock after a lingering illness. Capt. Roberts has resided in Los Angeles for many years, and his nose now extends all over the southern part of the State.

Telegraph wires are down between Los Angeles and San Francisco, and last evening it did not look as though any business could be transacted. Reports from San Francisco state that about 88 of an inch of rain had fallen in twenty-four hours and that it was still raining. At San Diego the weather was cloudy.

Secretary Gregory Perkins of the Board of Trade, arrived yesterday from Albert A. Pope of Boston, enclosing a petition to Congress asking for the establishment of a road department, similar to the Department of Agriculture under the National Government. The petition is now on file at the Secretary of State's office of Trade, where signatures can be appended.

The attention of charitable people is directed to Don C. Smith of No. 23 East First street, who is 73 years old, blind, crippled, and alone. His endeavors to support himself in a pension of $10 per month and the sale of some possessions of his own. His next pension will not be received by him until about the 15th of December, and until that time he has no means of support.

The young steamer Connaugh, which left San Francisco on Saturday last for New York by way of Redondo and being nearly a day overdue, cast anchor off the latter port yesterday afternoon. The tardiness of the steamer was due to the heavy weather prevailing, ship having taken refuge on the leeward side of Catalina Island until the stress of weather was over.

The Park Commissioners have reported to the City Council asking that body to accept and receive the extension of time for work on the Hollenbeck Park presented at the last meeting of the commissioners. The terms of the original conveyance were that the city should spend in improving the land $50,000 on or before December 31, 1892, and $20,000 on or before December 31, 1893. Mrs. Hawley has agreed to extend the time one year in each case for making said expenditures.

CRIME AND CRIMINALS.

A Young Man in Trouble for Forgiving His Sister's Name.

Squandered Her Earnings in Fast Living—A Supposed Hotel-worker in Custody—Young Smith Acquitted—Petty Offenders.

Fred Kopp, a waiter in one of the Second street restaurants, was arrested yesterday morning by Police Detective Bosqui on a charge of forgery in having signed his sister Annie's name to checks to the amount of about $150, which the girl had deposited in the California Bank.

The case is a singular one, for the reason that Bosqui has worked up evidence sufficient to convict young Kopp, and yet a strong effort is being made to have the charges dismissed against him.

The girl is a servant in Councilman McCormick's family, and is a hard working, honest girl. She is very saving and deposits all of her earnings that she can spare in the bank. Her brother, who is a worthless kind of fellow, spends all the money he can get his hands on, and as he did not earn sufficient waiting on the table to satisfy his wants he forged his sister's name to checks for sums ranging from $10 to $50.

On day a few weeks ago he over-drew his sister's account, and the bank gave her of her that fact.

On going to the bank and examining the checks, numbering fifteen or eighteen, she promptly pronounced them forgers, and the police were consulted.

She had no idea at that time that her brother was the forger, and was greatly surprised when Bosqui captured the young man in the act of presenting another check, as he did not know that the account had been overdrawn.

He was promptly placed under arrest and taken to the central station, where he was locked up. If the case is not compromised, he will be taken before the Police Court today.

A hotel worker.

A smooth citizen, who is supposed to be S. W. Barthol, was lodged in the City Prison by Officer O'Regan on a charge of grand larceny yesterday morning.

Some two months ago Barthol, who is a kind of flash gambler, was rooming at the United States Hotel, and soon became quite popular among the guests. One of his new-made friends was in the habit of sleeping late in the morning, and he asked Barthol to wake him up at a certain hour every morning, and Barthol told him to leave his door unlocked and place a chair against it so that he could get in.

The waking process was kept up for several days, and one morning the confiding friend overslept himself, and on awaking he found that he had been robbed of a fine gold watch and chain and a few dollars in cash.

On making inquiries at the hotel office he learned that Barthol had quitted the place that morning, and he once suspected him of having robbed him.

The matter was reported to the police, and a lookout was kept up ever since but Barthol has been out of the city until yesterday, when he returned, and was at once arrested and lodged in jail.

Young Smith Acquitted.

A. J. Smith, who was arrested last Sunday, on complaint of George M. Holton, Esq., who claimed that Smith exposed his person in the presence of his little daughter and two other little girls on Third street, was tried and acquitted by a jury in Justice Owens's Court yesterday morning. The little girls were not present to testify, and the evidence went to show that Smith, who bears a good reputation among his acquaintances, failed, through absent-mindedness, to rearrange his clothing on leaving a closet. He had several character witnesses present, who testified that he is a member of the church in good standing. The report that he was convicted and sentenced to the City Prison Monday arose from an error in transcribing the case from the Police Court docket. The decision of the court was in his favor, not against him.

gaged in a street fight on Main and Second streets at an early hour yesterday morning, were fined $10 and $5 respectively by Police Justice Owens yesterday.

William Siemakar, who stole a couple of books from a news stand the other night, pleaded guilty to petty larceny in the Police Court yesterday, and was fined $5.

William McCormick, an old offender, who was arrested the other night for begging on the streets, was sentenced to sixty days in the chain gang by Justice Owens yesterday. His "pal," Robert Macy, was also sentenced to five days in the chain gang for beggary.

A complaint was sworn to in the Police Court by Joseph A. Hill yesterday, charging a man named Duncan with an assault with a deadly weapon. Hill was talking to a friend on Spring street yesterday morning about a bet, when Duncan came up and picked a quarrel with him. Duncan finally drew a knife and attempted to stab him.

The charges against J. Greenwald, for selling lottery tickets, were dismissed by Justice Austin yesterday for want of testimony to convict.

A WELCOME ARRIVAL.
